

IF YOU LIKE THIS EVENT,
YOU MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN...

If we want to disrupt the status quo, what kind of leadership is called for? What are our scripts, beliefs, and fears? Join us for a brown bag lunch and conversation. Stay or join us for a post-lunch reflective walk, where we'll contemplate when it is time to let go of old practices to make room for new ones. For leaders at all levels.

LUNCH / 12:30-2pm
WALK / 2pm-3:30pm
by: Jennifer Charlesworth

Special parallel sessions for the community living sector and child & family sector to explore how user-centred design is similar and different to existing frameworks and approaches. Especially frontline workers, managers, families.

Monday, June 19, 2017
10:30am-12:30pm
by Maggie Vilvang
and Jennifer Charlesworth

www.inwithforward.com
hello@inwithforward.com

790 E 14th Ave,
Vancouver, BC V5T 2N4

LEARNING BILL

June 16, 2017

TIME &

SPACE

Data

Design

Humanities & Social science

Social Service Practice

Leadership

TIME & SPACE

Conrad and Hedin (1990) reminded us of Mark Twain's cat who 'learned from sitting on a hot stove lid...never to sit again'. During this session we'll learn how not to be the cat.

LEARNING SESSION GOALS

1. To recognize reflection as essential to learning
2. To become familiar with Guided Reflection
3. To be inspired to incorporate reflective practice into work and life

CAST

Maggie Vilvang

Old dog? Maybe. New Tricks? For Sure! Maggie has loved every minute (almost) of her forty year journey serving people with disabilities and their families. Her journey is full of success, failure, laughter and loads of stories that help to make sense of it all.

SCENES

Scene I: Opening
Scene II: The Guide
Scene III: Inquiry
Scene IV: Story
Scene V: Patterns
Scene VI: Close

KEY CONCEPTS, FRAMEWORKS, DEFINITIONS

Reflection
Inquiry
Pattern Recognition
Story Mapping
Narrative

FURTHER FOOD FOR THOUGHT

J. Dewey, Steve Patty, The Beverly Hillbillies

SOUNDTRACK

Kodachrome – by Paul Simon